

I am outraged at the news of your predictable decision to further deregulate media ownership in America. For the long term health and sustainability of our "democracy" it is imperative that the FCC and other federal organizations actually listen to the people.

Please reconsider your decision and while you do, please think about keeping information free and unbiased rather than keeping media companies pockets full of money and monopolies.